REQUEST FOR ACCOMMODATION FOR RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCES

This form must be submitted by the student to the professor by the end of the second week of the semester to which the request applies. A separate form must be submitted for each day and for each course. The instructor should fill in the bottom section of the form, then return the original form to the student and retain a photocopy.

Department: _____________________  Course number and name: _______________________________

Instructor name: _______________________________  Date submitted: ________________

Student name: _______________________________  Phone: _________________________

I request accommodation for the following religious observance:

Name of religious holiday: _______________________________  Name of religion: ______________

Day(s), date(s), and time(s) of religious holiday (e.g., “sundown Monday, September 29, through sundown Tuesday, September 30”):

____________________________________________________________________________________

Briefly state the requirements of this religious observance that will prevent you from attending class, taking an examination, or fulfilling other academic requirements (e.g., “Because work is prohibited on this holiday, students observing it are not to attend classes, take examinations, or perform other class requirements”).

Please note: Faculty do not have to consider accommodations for the purpose of allowing students to travel away from Bloomington for a religious observance.

(Optional) Suggested accommodation (e.g., makeup examination):
