<td>• Dr. Pfeifle, Assistant Dean, Interprofessional Education, Indiana University School of Medicine, gave an update on the Team Education Advancing Collaboration in Healthcare (TEACH). On the week of February 6-February 10, School of Public Health- Bloomington will host the “Introduction to Interprofessional Teamwork” which purpose is to expose learners to the fundamental components of Interprofessional Practice and Education, and the benefits of working in teams. At the end of the presentation Dr. Pfeifle answered numerous questions raised by the Academic Council committee members. K. Grove stressed the importance of this program and asked faculty to talk with their students about it. At this time three departments from our school are involved in IPE: RPTS, AHS, and Kinesiology.</td>
